RESOUNDING VICTORY FOR SLOTS!

November 4, 2008, will be recalled as a historic day for Maryland racing.

With a record number of Marylanders going to the polls, a resounding 59 percent majority voted in favor of the referendum to authorize a constitutional amendment allowing 15,000 video lottery terminals (slot machines) at five locations in the state.

When the referendum passed, the slots program created in last year's special session of the Maryland General Assembly immediately took effect.

Your generous support for the Thoroughbred Horsemen's PAC will enable us to contribute to the election campaigns of state officials who have demonstrated willingness to support our industry.

That program directs 5.6 percent of the revenue from each slots site to Thoroughbred horsemen and breeders. Based on the projections of state analysis.

Maryland under quarantine due to outbreak of EHV-1

Maryland tracks will remain under a limited quarantine until at least December 5, due to an outbreak of equine herpesvirus (EHV-1).

A full-scale quarantine took effect on November 14, the day after a 2-year-old filly in Barn 1 tested positive for EHV-1. The Maryland Department of Agriculture immediately placed a Hold Order on the barn when testing indicated that Nin, trained by King Leatherbury, was suffering from the disease. The filly was later euthanized.

On November 18, after tests on all of the other horses in Barn 1 came back with negative results, the Maryland Jockey Club announced tentative plans to ease the restrictions.

If no other cases of EHV-1 appeared, Laurel and Bowie were set to begin ac-

Registration check-off to help provide for retired race horses

Foal registration applications submitted to The Jockey Club on or after January 1, 2009, will include a voluntary check-off for directing contributions to two organizations that provide post-racing care for Thoroughbreds.

The Jockey Club will match the check-off on a dollar-to-dollar basis up to $200,000 in 2009.

Check-off proceeds and matching funds will be distributed to the Thoroughbred Charities of America and Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation.

Thoroughbred breeders will have the option of selecting one of four graduated amounts ($25, $50, $75 or $100) to be designated for these Thoroughbred after-care programs or they may fill in the amount of their choice on the Application for Foal Registration form.

These contributions will not qualify as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.

lysts, slots revenue could boost Thoroughbred purses by approximately $60 million within the next four years.

"We could not be more pleased with the outcome of the referendum," said MT'HA President Richard Hoffberger. "Significantly, slots won approval in every jurisdiction, among Democrats and Republicans."

Added Mr. Hoffberger: "It would never have happened without the masterful job carried out by the ballot committee For Maryland for Our Future and its chairman, Fred Puddester, or the consulting group Independent Strategies, led by Craig Varoga. These people deserve our utmost appreciation."

The MT'HA committed major financial resources toward the passage of the referendum—disbursing $400,000 from the Purse Account to help support the efforts of For Maryland For Our Future.

"Allocation of these funds was not a matter to be taken lightly in these tough economic times," said Mr. Hoffberger. "But the MT'HA board voted unanimously, and in hindsight it certainly appears to have been a wise decision."

Implementation of the slots program will not be immediate.

A commission will be established in the near future to determine the licensees and locations. The committee will be composed of seven members: three appointed by Governor Martin O'Malley, two appointed by Senate President Thomas V. Mike Miller, and two appointed by House Speaker Michael E. Busch.

Bids for licenses must be submitted to the commission by February 1, 2009.

Under the constitutional amendment, only two race tracks are eligible to be slots sites: Laurel Park and Ocean Downs. Slots may only be placed at the following locations:

- Anne Arundel County, within two miles of Maryland Route 295.
- Cecil County within two miles of I-95.
- Worcester County within one mile of Route 50 and Route 589.
- Allegany County, state property located within Rocky Gap State Park.
- Baltimore City, in a non-residential area within a half-mile of Maryland Route 295 on property owned by the city.

Unofficial vote count: every jurisdiction favors slots

Official results are expected to be posted by November 25 on the Maryland State Board of Elections Web site at www.elections.state.md.us/elections/2008/questions/general/Statewide\_Ballot\_Question\_Results.html.

Still, no horses—including any new arrivals—will be allowed to ship out of the Maryland tracks until December 5 (with the exception of those stabled at Bowie and traveling to race at Laurel).

said MTHA President Richard Hoffberger. "The Maryland Department of Agriculture and its chief veterinarian, Dr. Guy Hohenhaus, also deserve appreciation."

Mr. Hoffberger also urged trainers to consult with their own veterinarians and take appropriate steps to minimize risks of any future EHV-1 spread.

While there is currently no reliable way to prevent the neurologic form of EHV-1 infection, vaccination can reduce the incidence of the respiratory form of the disease.

Horses who develop neurologic signs often initially experience respiratory illness. The virus is transmitted primarily by direct nose-to-nose contact or contaminated hands, equipment, feed and water. It can also be spread up to 35 feet by airborne droplets.

EHV-1 is not associated with any human health risk.

Steroid ban to take effect January 1, 2009

Maryland's ban on anabolic steroids is set to take effect on January 1, 2009.

The system of penalties and grace period are expected to be announced in the near future, and will appear in next month's issue of this newsletter.

Maryland's new rule mirrors the Racing Medication and Testing Consortium's model rule, and is in line with rules currently in effect in neighboring states, including Pennsylvania.

Testing will be performed on urine, with threshold limits for the following four substances:

- Stanozolol—1 nanogram per milliliter.
- Nandrolone—1 nanogram per milliliter taken from a gelding, filly or mare.
- Boldenone—15 nanograms per milliliter taken from a colt or horse.
- Testosterone—20 nanograms per milliliter taken from a gelding or 55 nanograms per milliliter taken from a filly or mare.

All other anabolic steroids will be entirely prohibited.

New shoe rule on the way

It is not yet known when the changes will take effect, but the Maryland Racing Commission is pursuing changes regarding shoes.

Language for the proposed rule is as follows:

A horse may not be permitted to start if it has shoes with toe grabs which:

- (1) are greater than 2 millimeters in height; or
- (2) contain bends, jar carks or any other traction device worn on the front hooves.

Thoughts and comment

Maryland's racing industry is back on the road to prosperity, thanks to the large majority of voters who turned out in support of the slots referendum. But we still could encounter bumps along the road—some of them potentially big enough to jolt us to a standstill.

For that reason, I am coming to you with an urgent request: Please contribute generously to the Thoroughbred Horsemen's Political Action Committee. (See page 1.)

Funds from the PAC will be used to support state elected officials who believe in our future, just as we do—and who have provided tangible evidence by supporting legislation that preserves and promotes Thoroughbred racing.

Maintaining our strong relationship with the leadership in Annapolis will be of utmost importance in the months and years ahead.

When leaders with a track record favorable to racing are reelected, our odds of continued support and success are greatly improved.

The Thoroughbred Horsemen's PAC is the only Political Action Committee designed to protect our entire industry. It deserves all the support that we can muster.

Legislative Committee Chairman
